

"History and Current Research on the Shroud of Turin."

A Presentation hosted by

All Saints' Episcopal Church

545 W. 8th Avenue, Anchorage, Alaska

August 1 & 2 @ 7pm

Limited seating. Register online at

<https://shroud.netlify.com/topics/event>

Presenters: Dr. Cheryl White & Fr. Peter Mangum

Dr. Cheryl White is an Associate Professor of History at Louisiana State University at Shreveport, where she teaches in the field of Medieval and Early Modern Europe, as well as Philosophy and Religious Studies. She currently holds the endowed Hubert Humphreys Professorship in History, and is a member of the Sixteenth Century Studies Conference and the American Society of Church History. She has been actively engaged in Shroud scholarship and study for the entirety of her academic career, and is also a member of the American Confraternity of the Holy Shroud, and the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. Dr. White's current research focuses on the Shroud's so-called "Missing Years" of the thirteenth century. She co-hosts the international weekly podcast series, Who is the Man of the Shroud, with Fr. Peter Mangum.

Fr. Peter B. Mangum attended the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome where he received degrees in theology and canon law. Ordained for service as a priest in the Diocese of Shreveport in 1990, Fr. Mangum is currently rector of the Cathedral of St. John Berchmans and chaplain to two schools (Pre-K3 - 12). He is also the Judicial Vicar. He is a member of numerous ecclesial organizations, including the American Confraternity of the Holy Shroud, of which he is the only priest. Fr. Mangum also belongs to the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, an 800-year old chivalric order pledged to the support of the Holy Land, in which he holds the rank of Knight Commander. In April of this year, he was granted access to the Vatican Secret Archives for further research related to the Shroud, which is the basis of a forthcoming academic paper. Fr. Mangum is curator of the new Shroud Exhibit located at the Cathedral of St. John Berchmans.

"History and Current Research on the Shroud of Turin."

A Presentation hosted by

All Saints' Episcopal Church

545 W. 8th Avenue, Anchorage, Alaska

August 1 & 2 @ 7pm

Limited seating. Register online at

<https://shroud.netlify.com/topics/event>

Presenters: Dr. Cheryl White & Fr. Peter Mangum

Dr. Cheryl White is an Associate Professor of History at Louisiana State University at Shreveport, where she teaches in the field of Medieval and Early Modern Europe, as well as Philosophy and Religious Studies. She currently holds the endowed Hubert Humphreys Professorship in History, and is a member of the Sixteenth Century Studies Conference and the American Society of Church History. She has been actively engaged in Shroud scholarship and study for the entirety of her academic career, and is also a member of the American Confraternity of the Holy Shroud, and the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. Dr. White's current research focuses on the Shroud's so-called "Missing Years" of the thirteenth century. She co-hosts the international weekly podcast series, Who is the Man of the Shroud, with Fr. Peter Mangum.

Fr. Peter B. Mangum attended the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome where he received degrees in theology and canon law. Ordained for service as a priest in the Diocese of Shreveport in 1990, Fr. Mangum is currently rector of the Cathedral of St. John Berchmans and chaplain to two schools (Pre-K3 - 12). He is also the Judicial Vicar. He is a member of numerous ecclesial organizations, including the American Confraternity of the Holy Shroud, of which he is the only priest. Fr. Mangum also belongs to the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, an 800-year old chivalric order pledged to the support of the Holy Land, in which he holds the rank of Knight Commander. In April of this year, he was granted access to the Vatican Secret Archives for further research related to the Shroud, which is the basis of a forthcoming academic paper. Fr. Mangum is curator of the new Shroud Exhibit located at the Cathedral of St. John Berchmans.